INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Members of Global Risk Institute In Financial Services:

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of Global Risk Institute In Financial Services ("GRI"), which comprise the statement of financial position as at December 31, 2018 and the statements of financial activities and cash flows for the year then ended, and notes to the financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of GRI as at December 31, 2018 and the results of its operations and cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Canadian Accounting Standards for Not-for-Profit Organizations.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of GRI in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in Canada, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with Canadian Accounting Standards for Not-for-Profit Organizations, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing these financial statements, management is responsible for assessing GRI's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to a going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate GRI or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing GRI's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.

We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of GRI's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on GRI's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause GRI to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

DECEMBER 31, 2018

1. Nature of operations

The Global Risk Institute in Financial Services (the "Organization") was incorporated in 2011 as a not-for profit organization whose purpose is the continuous improvement of the financial services sector through applied research into the integrative management of risks, the advancement of risk education, professional development for practitioners, executives and boards, and the ongoing examination of the mutual interests of the financial services sector and public policy makers.

The Organization is a public-private partnership that is a collaborative effort between the financial services industry and the governments of Canada and Ontario.

As a not-for profit organization, the Organization is exempt from income taxes under section 149(1) of the income tax act.

2. Summary of significant accounting policies

The Organization has elected to apply the standards in Part III of the CPA Canada Handbook, referred to as Canadian Accounting Standards for Not-for-Profit Organizations ("ASNPO"). These financial statements have been prepared by management and the significant accounting policies are summarized as follows:

a) Accrual basis of accounting

Expenditures are recorded on the accrual basis, whereby they are reflected in the financial statements in the period in which they have been incurred, whether or not such transactions have been finally settled by payment of money.

b) Revenue recognition

- i) Membership fees including National Pension Hub membership fees are for twelve months and are recognized evenly over the course of the twelve month period.
- ii) Federal and Provincial funding is recognized evenly over the term of the agreement.
- iii) Interest income and other income is recognized when earned.

c) Use of estimates

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and reported amounts of revenues and expenditures during the year. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

d) Property and equipment

Property and equipment are recorded at cost less accumulated amortization. Amortization is charged to earnings at rates that, in the opinion of management, allocate the cost of such assets over their estimated useful lives. The Organization records amortization using the following annual rates:

Leasehold improvements	-	60 months straight-line
Furniture and fixtures	-	60 months straight-line
Computer equipment	-	24 to 48 months straight-line

The cash equivalents consist of amounts invested in Government of Canada treasury bills earning interest of 1.60% and term deposits earning interest between 1.65% and 1.86%, all maturing either January or February 2019. Subsequent to the January or February 2019 maturity, the cash equivalents were renewed in Government of Canada treasury bills and term deposits. Cash amounts are invested in a savings account at a Canadian Deposit Insurance approved financial institution.

Under the funding agreements with both the Federal and Provincial governments, the Organization is to spend $1,000,000 annually from each grant. This requirement has been met for the 2018 year.

$4,865,833 (2017- $6,782,500) of the cash and cash equivalents balance is restricted. See note 6.
