

Date	Details
February 1, 2, 3 and 8, 9, 10 FULL May 3, 4, 5 and 10, 11, 12 September 20, 21, 22 and 27, 28 29	Emerging Leaders Program The Risk Management for Emerging Leaders Program is targeted at new leaders interested in advancing their knowledge and effectiveness in the management of risk. This program will prepare leaders by improving their understanding and application of risk methodologies. It will assist them in asking the right questions and assess responses to risk challenges within their organization. To inquire about on of these educational sessions, please contact Chris Burke, Manager of Member Services at cburke@globalriskinsititute.org
February 16, 2022 11am to 12pm	The Future of Infrastructure Investments OPEN TO ALL MEMBERS Join us for this upcoming GRI Pension Hub Webinar where we will explore the impact of aging population on infrastructure investment and discuss the special risk and return characteristics of infrastructure as an asset class. Speaker: Stephen Bonnar, University of Waterloo Panelist: Alexander Andonov, University of Amsterdam Michael McGowan, Mercers Jaideep Oberoi, University of Kent

February 23, 2022 11am to 12pm	Macroeconomic Policy Series – Session 1 The Bank of Canada’s New Mandate and Policy Transition: Impacts and Risks in 2022 and Beyond OPEN TO ALL MEMBERS Join us for the first webinar, in our Macroeconomics series, where we will examine the impacts and risks in Canadian monetary policy’s transition by exploring: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The BoC’s new mandate – what is unchanged, and what is different? • What the new mandate and the experience of the pandemic mean for the BoC’s approach to inflation and its policy pivot; • The BoC’s expected approach to its policy rate lift-off and first-ever balance sheet normalization; and • The expected impacts on financial markets, especially the absolute levels and yield curve for Canada bonds, and the pricing of credit risk. Speakers: Dr Christopher Ragan, Founding Director, Max Bell School of Public Policy & Associate Professor of Economics, McGill University Warren Lovely, Managing Director, Chief Rates and Public Sector Strategist, National Bank of Canada Financial Markets
February 24, 2022 11am to 12pm	Roundtable on IRCSS Consultation Paper INVITATION ONLY Join this exclusive roundtable dialogue alongside other leaders and experts in financial and sustainability reporting from banks, pensions, and insurance companies. We will hear more about the proposed CSSB, the rationale behind it, and how it would relate to the ISSB and other relevant bodies in Canada. You will have the opportunity to actively share your perspectives and feedback with IRCSS leadership. This session is ideal for individuals leading financial reporting, and/or sustainability and climate related financial risk reporting. Speakers: Edward Waitzer, Chair of the IRCSS Sonia Baxendale, President and CEO of GRI and member of the IRCSS

March 3, 2022 11am to 12pm	Macroeconomic Policy Series – Session 2 Uncharted Waters: When Policy Solutions Exacerbate or Become the Problem OPEN TO ALL MEMBERS Join us in our continued Macroeconomics series where we will assess the impacts and risks of monetary policy in recent decades including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Examining the financial stability implications of prolonged ultra-low interest rates and sustained QE; • Exploring how balance sheet and rate "normalization" face the reality of economic and financial systems with major structural risks and where any of multiple forces might be the trigger for a crisis; and • Considering the side effects and narrow path available for the Fed and other leading central banks to achieve successful policy normalization. Speaker: James (Jason) Stewart, Executive in Resident, Global Risk Institute William White, Former Chairman, OECD Economic and Development Review Committee, and Senior Fellow at the C.D. Howe Institute
---------------------------------------	--

For any questions about GRI Events and Programming, please email events@globalriskinstitute.org or www.globalriskinstitute.org/events